

Team of Trial Lawyers

Offering Personalized Service Strengthened by Decades of Experience

MIROBALLI DURKIN & RUDIN, LLC (“MDR”) is dedicated to providing their clients personalized, professional service backed by decades of experience. The firm’s diverse practice includes aviation law, medical negligence, construction negligence, product liability, transportation litigation, traumatic brain injury, wrongful death, and premise liability. Due to the business growing, MDR moved to a new office suite on October 1, 2010. Their new location is 180 North LaSalle Street, Suite 3650, Chicago, IL 60601. The team of lawyers has also expanded due to the consolidation of their offices with Coven Law Group. MDR continues to achieve successful results for their clients and remains active in the legal and charitable communities.

Joseph J. Miroballi has successfully tried to verdict cases in all areas of personal injury law over his 30-year career. His cases against medical institutions in the Chicago area have led to reform in the way medications are dispensed and administered to patients. Mr. Miroballi is a long-standing member of the Illinois Trial Lawyer Association’s Medical Negligence Committee and Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA). Mr. Miroballi is a contributor to the Medical Malpractice Journal and a contributing writer to the Illinois State Bar Journal. He also is a lecturer to the ISBA, as well as the Physician Association and insurance companies.

Albert E. Durkin has more than 30 years of experience as a personal injury litigator. Mr. Durkin has distinguished himself in the area of complex traumatic brain injury and psychological injury resulting from trauma. Mr. Durkin serves on the Illinois State Bar Association’s (ISBA) Judicial Evaluation Committee, General Assembly and is a member of the Tort Section Council. He is also a frequent speaker, and he is consistently published in legal journals including being featured in the Leading Lawyers Magazine—Consumer Edition for 2011.

Scott H. Rudin’s preparatory work has led to many successful verdicts and settlements in his 20 years of practice. Mr. Rudin serves on the Chicago Bar Association’s Judicial Evaluation Committee. He is also committed to children’s charities and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Keshet, the Board of Directors for the Equestrian Connection, and is the Executive Vice-President of the Special Kids Network. Mr. Rudin was named the Dinner Honoree for the February 28, 2012 Keshet Dinner Banquet. In his spare time, he also was one of the assistant coaches to the Deerfield Warriors 13-year-old travel baseball team.

Lauren Levin served as a law clerk at MDR before becoming an Associate in 2007. Since that time, she is responsible for obtaining favorable settlement on behalf of the firm’s clients and has successfully represented clients at arbitration proceedings and trial. Additionally, Ms. Levin litigated an interlocutory appeal decided in favor of her client, in Aylward v. Settecase. Before graduating from law school, she received a Master’s Degree in Bioethics, which she applies to the firm’s medical malpractice litigation.

Jessica Durkin joined MDR as an Associate attorney in 2010. Since joining the firm, Ms. Durkin has authored several briefs for state and federal court, including briefs in a construction negligence case and its corresponding declaratory judgment action. Ms. Durkin currently serves on the ISBA Young Lawyer Division Council as Publicity Chair.

Miroballi Durkin & Rudin LLC

180 North LaSalle Street
Suite 3650
Chicago, Illinois 60601
312.229.5555
312.229.5556 fax
mdr-law.com

Above Photo Seated From Left: Joseph J. Miroballi*, Albert E. Durkin*, Scott H. Rudin* Standing From Left: Lauren Levin, Jessica Durkin

* Member(s) of the Leading Lawyers Network